Dearest Betty

I am in Miranda, waiting to eat, then go to Prayer Meeting, I'm hungry.

We had around 140 children today. Boy, what a mob. I had over 40 juniors again. Tomorrow I probably will have some help. I hope so.

It looks like I'll got to help another evangelistic service in a week. I hope so. I love them, because they make me feel good. Speaking of feeling good, I don't. I have my feet.

Bob, Laurie, Ace and some of the others went to the show Monday night. We asked me to go, and tried to persuade me, but I said I couldn't preach with a clear conscience if I did. Then they went on.

Last night I taught the 5th chapter of Matthew to the young people in Intermediates. I'm afraid some of them don't agree with some convictions stated by the teacher. But, Honey, I said it all with as much love as possible.

We are having faculty problems, and it seems they're coming to me with them. I pray for us. I'll be preaching at Miranda Sunday, and I'll be preaching 5 times this week. Pray much for me to encourage people, rather than to discourage.

I'll try to write a long letter tomorrow. Bye love now. I love you in God's will.
