

August 5, 1949.

Dear Betty Ruth,

How are you again?
I'm fine. I guess only ready to go back to school. I'm tired of fooling around.

What have you been doing? I've been cramming, ^{and} B. Ruth I've had so many opportunities to serve him. He's been so near. Pray that I might be nearer.

Margie tells me
that you're going to room with Barbara
Dean & the other suite-mates. I'm so glad. Oh boy oh boy,
if we aren't going to have fun!!! I can hardly wait.

When are you going to U.C.C., and are you going to the Retreat? I want to.
I know it'll be good.
Margie left for

2.

Treasure in the morning. (How about that sentence? !! ha! ha!)
Will be gone 10 days.

Well, I guess I'd better go. Write me
if you find a spare minute. If not,
think of me a little.
Be real sweet.

I love you..
