INTERESTING FACTS OF THE NELSON FAMILY COLLECTED
FROM "THE HISTORY OF SAN PATRICIO COUNTY"

February 8, 1906, Jesse Nicholis Nelson moved his family to the Argenta area of south Texas. They bought the land later known as the Gray Place.

J. N. Nelson, son of William and Martha Carter, was one of 8 children and moved with his family to Arkansas from Mississippi, while a child. After his mother's death, his father married Amelia Carter, sister of Martha, his first wife, and they had 4 children.

Two children were born to William Nelson and his third wife, Ann Adams.

William Nelson built a store, cotton gin, four and grist mill, saw mill, and blacksmith shop in Arkansas.

In 1883, Jesse Nelson married Elizabeth Adams, sister of his father's third wife. He bought the grist mill and gin from the other heirs in the family and bought 500 acres of river land. He was a democrat, Justice of the Peace, and deacon in the Christian Church

In 1905, he sold thier home in Buford, Arkansas, and moved to Mathis, Texas, where he died in 1937.

There were 6 children in the Jesse Nelson family:

J. W. married Eltra Coltrin

Benjamin married Pearl Stone

Eulah married Carl Williams

Ruth married Julius Hayes

May married John Fusselman

Gillian married while in Arkansas and did not move to Mathis, Texas.

One of Jesse Nelson's half brothers, Robert and his wife, Florence, moved to Mathis and then to the Abiline area.

J. W. "Bill" Nelson was a banker in Mathis, Texas, for 51 years. He trained at the first Officers Training Camp during WWI at Leon Springs and was commissioned a 2d Lt. He saw active duty overseas and remained after the war in the Army of Occupation.

He attended the University of Arkansas prior to the war and was a star athlete in football. He was voted the most valuable quarterback in the State of Arkansas.

He helped to establish the athletic program in the Mathis School System. He organized, trained and coached team football, baseball and basketball. He was the real father of the "Mathis Pirates."

He was the beloved "boss" in the bank.

Jesse N. Nelson married Elizabeth "Betsy" Adams and came to Mathis in 1906 by train (SA-AP) San Antonio - Aransas Pass Railroad.

15

Ruth was about 23 years old
Eulah was about 10 years old
Benjamin was about 7 years old
May was about 5 years old
Oldest son, Bill, finished school in Arkansas and came to Mathis in 1907.

They lived on a farm north of Mathis.

The younger children attended a one-room school in what was Ego, and now called Argenta Community in Live Oak County.

Jesse and son, Bill, helped to build the Church of Christ, which is still used.

Benjamin and May attended and graduated from High School. They traveled to School by horse and buggy.

A trip to Corpus Christi took 2 or 3 days.

"Betsy" and daughter moved into Mathis where "Betsy" died in 1946 at the age of 85 years of age.

- - - - -

In 1906, attending the first school in Argenta were 3 Norton, 3 Grover, 3 Brown, and 3 Nelson children.
