

April, 1957

Dear Betty,

Today I have time for just a line or more. We're busy, and last night I was sick from eating too much, and being in such a nervous tension so long.
Now, I'm more relaxed.

I'll get in at 4:00 Monday morning.

Keep praying, Honey. Things are still going, we're just trying to let God do His work, His way.

I miss you, and just ache to see you, and you know, I sure need to have you take all the tension out of my body as only you can.

I have to sign off, and get back to business. Bye, I'll see you Tuesday

I love you with all God gives me,
David