Dear "Pasture"

I have wanted for quite some time to tell you how much I appreciate you and your work.

Every time I am in church, I can hear again the promises of God and this is reassuring for I need to be told this again and again.

Your's must be a thankless job from the people you serve, but I appreciate your sincere efforts for God and for my church.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "John M. O'Hara". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large loop at the beginning and a long, sweeping tail that extends to the right.
