

Thursday afternoon

Dear dear Daddy,

I'll try to get a letter off today as I'm not sure you would get it if mailed after today. I don't know that you would get a letter on Sunday, or not.

It sounds like you're having a good time. He could come today showing where you rode horseback - I knew you loved that.

It seems like you always get a revival with a handicap, doesn't it. But we know the Lord will use you and good will come of it. Maybe the church needs a good strengthening.

You tell Mrs. Dillard not to overdo spoiling you. After all you are not supposed to get out of the habit of fixing ~~my~~ breakfast. Maybe you better fix these the last two or three days, just for good measure.

We'll be so glad to see you on Monday, we'll probably devour you. You better be prepared.

I got a big kick out of that nudist camp so close to you all. I showed the clipping to Belle Lee, too. She nearly died. She said she didn't want you going to Riverside on that road - you take another route.

Willie is working evenings now and will till July. They're already invited for a morning of 42 & dinner for next week! How about that?

I bought groceries this morning and spent nearly half a week's check. I'm good at that, aren't I? I hope ~~your~~ your money is holding out all right.

Davy's going to musical at Wharton with the band tonight. He'll be getting home late - but he said he really wanted to go so what could I do?

Your horses are doing beautifully. Even you will be pleased, I think. I haven't even ruined your pickup - I thought I'd surely have at least one mirror knocked off by now, didn't you?

Danny had let her car get on E so they went in for gas last night after prayer meeting & dragged us for something to drink (course we were eager) Bennie & Allen went too & we did enjoy it. - except you weren't there.

I've been practicing with Pat and Johnny Lee & Mr. Babbe for P.T.O. I'm really enjoying it.

I guess I'll close now and get ready for lessons.

Love you so much
Betty

P.S. My bed's all out of balance at rest time & I can't even rest good.
