Winston-Six Years On The PRCA Circuit

The Winston rodeo scoreboard helps fans keep posted.

Cindy Alexander
Miss Winston Rodeo

During the past six years, Winston cigarettes through its rodeo awards program has paid out more than a half million dollars as bonus money to top ranked members in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association.

In addition to their support of the sport through cash bonus program, Winston supports local rodeo committees by providing advertising and publicity support with the goal of creating new rodeo fans throughout the nearly 600 rodeos sanctioned by the PRCA.

Another important part of the Winston program is Cindy Alexander, Miss Winston Rodeo. Cindy spends a good part of each year on the PRCA circuit working with the news media helping promote and publicize the growing sport of PRCA rodeo.

Rodeo fans have been uniform in their praise of the Winston rodeo scoreboards. Six of these units are on the road during the year to help keep fans better posted on events as they unfold during the performance.

During 1978 Winston will put $175,000 up as bonus money for PRCA contestants; a $25,000 increase from 1977. In addition, top barrel racers in the Girls Rodeo Association will share a $10,000 bonus.

Winston Rodeo Awards $150,000 in 1977

All Around Champion

$10,000

Tom Ferguson continued his dominance of the prestigious All-Around Title making it four in a row in 1977. The modest Oklahoman that calls Miami home also won the steer wrestling world's championship. He will be a hard man to beat this year with super skill in both steer wrestling and calf roping.
