There is this teacher by the name of Dave
When you're in his class you gotta behave
He raps on his desk and says listen here
I've got some words that <sup>are</sup> precious and dear
Then he opens his Bible and begins to read
And out of his heart the words proceed
The students all listen with attentive ears
And before he's finished, there are some tears
Sometimes he's excited, sometimes he's grim
If the students haven't learned, they can't blame him
And so as we come to this study's end
We're all a little wiser because of our friend
May the Lord bless him in all of his ways
And grant unto him many glorious <sup>days</sup> ~~days~~
So to you, Bro. Dave, we extend our thanks
A job well done, you've filled our tanks.
