

Friday night

Dear Papa,

Well, I got your letter yesterday, so I thought I'd drop a line. Thanks for sending my Credit Union statement.

School is getting better; ~~so~~ mainly because our instructor likes to have fun while teaching. For instance, one of the members of ~~my~~ my class is a real back-words type person named Coffey. Another is very well-off, and is always talking about "class." His name is Speno. Anyway, this is how our instructor explained transistors ~~on~~ the chalk board:

He could have used a symbol, $\textcircled{\text{LOAD}}$, but he chose to do it this way. I won't try to explain them to you (transistors, I mean) because I would probably tell you wrong.

I'm getting my Green Rope & starting Rope School Monday. Also, Sgt. Carmona is moving me to Asst. Bay Chief. Most ropes have to have a yellow rope to do this, but we're short of ropes right now. It'll also be Bay Chief while a green-rope, because the present one is shipping out in 8 days.

Do you think you could ~~start~~ start sending me the Vindictor and the Sunday Post every week? I sure would appreciate it. Also, keep me filled in on ~~the~~ how things are coming along concerning the Ministry. The money is needed desperately.

Tell Warren + Jeanene that if they'll write me I'll write back. Tell everyone I said hello.

Love always,

Dave
